

JOHN W. GRAVES

John W. Graves, formerly a resident of Ithaca for 24 years, passed away at the age of 93 on February 4th, 2017, at his residence at Greystone Farm Assisted Living in Salem, NH where he resided with his wife Helen. He graduated from Ithaca College in 1943 and became an instrumental music teacher and Director of the Marching Band at Ithaca High School in 1947. Later he became a guidance counselor at IHS and then became the principal in 1961 - 1971. John also received his doctorate in education from Cornell in 1962. The family remembers many happy years living in Ithaca. John is survived by his wife Helen, son Eric of Woodland Hills, CA, and daughter Anne Bartlett of Manchester, NH. He is also survived by nieces and nephews, three grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Published in Ithaca Journal on Feb. 10, 2017