2017 Goals: Lee Romero, Lay Director

As we move into 2017, I pray that God will move those around us and encourage people to meet our living God, through the Cursillo movement.

My main focus in the next three years as the Lay Director, in consultation with the Spiritual Advisor, promote a spirit of unity, within the members of the Secretariat and School of Leaders, prepare and direct agendas for all meetings of the Secretariat. Work on evangelization, provide an annual report to the bishop with the approval of the Secretariat, an ongoing calendar of events and organization of Cursillo workshops.

The Role of Spiritual Advisor, Deacon Andy Carrillo

The Spiritual Advisors oversee the spiritual needs of the Secretariat and the Movement. The Spiritual Advisors, who is appointed by the bishop, maintain a link between the Movement and the bishop's office. To insure proper spiritual assistance to the Movement, the Spiritual Advisors are responsible for acquiring other priests, vowed religious and deacons to assist with the doctrinal talks at the School(s) of Leaders, the spiritual advisor sessions during the Cursillo weekends and the Spiritual Advisor's role during the Ultreyas. The Spiritual Advisors should continually challenge the other Secretariat members to discern, in all their activities, God's will instead of their own.

Philippians 4:6-7 do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
