Dear Wagner Family,

We hope this letter finds you healthy, prosperous and above all blessed. Your Columbus Host Committee is busy planning for our 48th Wagner Family Reunion in the great state of Ohio!

Columbus is a bustling city that is often cited as one of the best for African-American families and is filled with a rich tapestry of our history. The Kelton House, located in downtown Columbus, was a stop on the Underground Railroad. Aminah Robinson, a world renowned African American artist, grew up in Poindexter Village, one of the nation’s first federally-funded metropolitan housing developments. The King Arts Complex is the keeper of the rich legacy of the African-American experience in Columbus, nestled right along the Mt. Vernon Avenue, which was once known as the “Cradle of Jazz.”

The Host Committee’s goal is to plan an enjoyable reunion focused on reconnecting with loved ones from across our branches and creating lifelong memories. Timely adherence to the deadlines contained within the letter will help us to effectively plan for a well-organized and engaging reunion.

REGISTRATION DUES

What would a reunion be without registration dues? Remember that dues are used to assist in planning by making deposits, securing reservations (i.e. transportation) and to pay for needed services (i.e. catering) in advance. It is pertinent that all dues are received by the established due date. As you can understand, individuals who do not pay their dues by the established deadline cannot be guaranteed space or participation in published activities. If your dues are not received by July 1, 2017 you will not be able to participate in the Family Dinner on July 28 or receive a family reunion t-shirt. Lack of funds impedes the planning process.

Please note the following information about your family reunion registration dues:

- The deadline for receiving your dues is July 1, 2017.
- Any dues that are paid after that time should be sent in the form of a money order and accompanied by a $25.00 late fee.
- Dues that are paid onsite will also incur a $25.00 late fee.
- Only cash and money orders will be accepted onsite.

The Host Committee would greatly appreciate it if each family would begin to send their dues in now.☺
